Subject: NO OVERLY LARGE BANK NEEDED

Mr. Martin J. Gruenberg, Acting Chairman
FDIC Board of Directors

AS A CONCERNED AMERICAN IT IS MY HOPE THAT THE Board of Directors of the FDIC will attend the important meeting with those concerned that Wal-Mart does NOT need to be in the banking business. The will, as they have so many small stores, ruin the economy in any and ALL locations they locate a Banking operation (this is not about competition).

Truely consider what is REALLY BEST for America. I have grandchildren and pray that the America that it has been my good luck to have been born in and lived in continue as my grandchildren mature.

Thank you for your sincere consideration.
